KANSAS.—The Washington correspondent of the Richmond South writes:

The feeling of Southern members of Congress at the prospect of the admission of Kansas is various, and by no means one of unmixed satisfaction. A distinguished South Carolina member has declared to me that, in consequence of the freesoil contrivance of Mr. Calhoun, he should vote against the admission of Kansas under the circumstances, as he did not wish to incur the responsibility with which the South might hereafter charge its representatives—of voting virtually for the admission of a free State, in disregard of justice to their own section. This view your correspondent has expressed substancontroversy about Kansas.

Rev. E. H. Chapla on the Revivals.

New York, March 14.—Rev. E. H. Chapin, in the course of his sermon this morning, took occasion to allude briefly to the religious excitement now prevailing so extensively in New York, Philadelphia and Boston. The speaker's opinion of the excitement was, on the to Dr. Foster, of Franklin county, that he ranaway from whole, against any actual good resulting therefrom, inasmuch as conversions, under such influences, were apt to Said boy is tall and very black, would weigh 170 or 180 be short lived. He did not believe it possible that a sinner could be changed to a saint by a sudden shock religion was something to be acquired by daily prayer; by holding close communion with God; by acknowledging him in all the forms of nature; in the hours of sorrow as well as the hours of joy; by administering to the necessities of the poor; and so by letting our light shine before men that others seeing our good works might orify our Father which is in Heaven. The truly religious man lived his religion—practised it in his daily walks-in the family circle-in the marts of business and wherever he might be placed. There was no excitement about such a man-his life flowed gently as a river —and his end was peace. The eloquent speaker, however, would not be understood as ridiculing the present religious movement. It had his best wishes that good might result from it. It would, at any rate, he said, draw the attention of many tests and experiments, for which purpose we have made ar- to the subject, and to the great fact that they possessed an immortal soul. At the present day there were very few that ever thought anything about the deathless spirit within them, and if the movement now in progress was successful in nothing more than awakening those in the paths of sin to a sense of their condition, it would not have been in vain.

Removal of Judge Loring.

The most bitter and unaltering spirit of New England fanaticism has triumphed, and Edward G. Loring has been removed from the office of Probate Judge of Massachusetts, because, as United States Commissioner, he delivered up the negro, Anthony Burns, in obediance to the plain mandate of the statute. This is "the head and front of his offending." Ex-Governor Gardiner very py," if happiness consists in good eating, drinking and see for properly refused, while he was in office, to sanction such a traitorous move, and it has remained for the supple and popularity-hunting N. P. Banks to cap the climax of Massachusetts' shame and degradation. The State has now selemnly repudiated her allegiance to the Union, practically she is at this moment a traitor in the confederacy, and Congress ought immediately to refuse her Senators and Representatives a voice in the national councils. Massachusetts is now open to actual rebellion. She has repudiated and nullified the laws of the which she entered into when she accepted the United States Constitution. Sumner, Wilson, Burlingame and the other old women who represent her should be immediately sent home. They have no business in Washington at all.
